

Weaving Our Humanity

Acknowledge the territories, thank the stewards of all lands.
Inspire...
Aspire...
Find those bridges.

Among us are many immigrants, some over 80, some born and raised here.
Language, no language
Racism, no racism.

We began on a journey. Imagine the fear, where we've come from, past lives past homes.

Present.

Place.

Why us? Why were we not Canadians?

We began to imagine courage,
our steps,
our actions,
our momentum.

We are here,
connected, interconnected.

Now,
new word
new world.
We are not alone,
each of us is a story.
Fill in the gaps,
skip the beats of divides,
extend bridges between gaps,
we are not so different from the sounds that surround us.

Beat Beat Beat Pulse Pulse Hold.

Did you feel that?

That --------of what brought us together?

Meharoona Ghani, Principal | Cell: 604 603-2609 | Email: mghaniconsulting@outlook.com | LinkedIn: ca.linkedin.com/in/meharoonaghani |

Twitter: @Meharoona

Hold.

Some faced challenges, assumptions, bullied.

Some felt lost,
some limited mother tongues,
adapted,
stepped out of comfort zones,
lifted eyes from cold tiles,
survived wars,
embarrassments,
internments,
and locker room moments.

We were not afraid to take risks. Step out.
Inclusion works – both ways – let's go beyond hellos to reach out and find what brings us together.
Sometimes it's as simple as garbage and bears and chocolate chips of the cookies of our lives.

Unwire patterns of our brains, unwind our biases, un-limit our limited perceptions, accept we see differences.

Are we ready to fix racism?

Let's re-shift. No more scars left on these pure clean water and lands.

> Grab and weave the strands of our humanity, of our threads.

This is who we are.

©Meharoona Ghani November 19, 2016 This is what I heard and saw at Weaving Our Humanity Event North Vancouver Presentation House Theatre

Meharoona Ghani, Principal | Cell: 604 603-2609 | Email: mghaniconsulting@outlook.com | LinkedIn: ca.linkedin.com/in/meharoonaghani |

Twitter: @Meharoona